

2011 WADE Distinguished Service Award Application

Purpose: To recognize a member of the Washington Association of Diabetes Educators (WADE) who has demonstrated leadership and support to the chapter.

Who can nominate: Anyone can nominate a qualified candidate including a WADE member, nonmember, or her/himself.

Candidate Eligibility criteria: Active Member of WADE, member of AADE, and three years of experience as a diabetes educator who has volunteered for WADE.

Procedure: 1) Complete this form. (You may expand the answer area, if needed).
2) Submit this application to phaldi@comcast.net by the entry deadline, March 4, 2011.

DATE:

	Candidate information	Person submitting application
Name
Credentials		(optional)
Address
Address
City, State
Zip Code
Home Phone
Work phone
AADE #		(optional)
Email
Best way/time to contact

WADE Volunteer experience:

Please list the candidate's positions and volunteer work with WADE. Please include as many duties and dates as are easily available. Some of the WADE's history in on the website including some dates of officers, <http://www.wadepage.org/node/45>.

Promotion of WADE's long-term goals.

Please describe how the candidate promotes WADE's long-term goals. It is unlikely that any candidate would excel in all areas, please fill out 2 to 5 of the following. (You may expand the answer area, if needed).

Advances recognition of diabetes education as central to the quality of diabetes care.

Promotes professional development.

Increases the demand for diabetes education within the evolving healthcare system.

Helps WADE as an organization to effectively and efficiently meets member needs.

Fosters co-operation, commitment, and sense of community among individuals and organizations involved with diabetes and diabetes education to foster mutual goals of different groups working to improve the lives of people with diabetes.

It is recommended that you include at least one letter of support from a fellow WADE member, colleague, or employer of the candidate. (An email copy is acceptable. If the candidate wins, a signed copy is traditionally given to the candidate).

Submit this application to phaldi@comcast.net by the entry deadline, March 4, 2011.